

Jacob Singleton

208 Weber Dr.
Eureka, MO 63025

(417) 536 -0590
jacob.singleton@kirkwoodschools.org

Education

Educational Specialist in Learning Technologies and Design

July 2023

Master of Arts in German Studies

May 2015

University of Missouri

Bachelor of Science in German

May 2012

Bachelor of Science in History Education

May 2011

Missouri State University

Certification

German K-12

October 2014

Social Studies 9-12

May 2011

Awards and Scholarships

Fulbright Scholarship to Germany (U.S. State Department)

August 2012-June 2013

Graduated with honors- "Cum Laude"

May 2011 and May 2012

Elsa Nagel Memorial Scholarship (Outstanding MA Student)

2013, 2014

Work Experiences

German Teacher

August 2015-Present

Department Chair

August 2022-Present

Nipher Middle School and Kirkwood High School, Kirkwood, MO

- Taught exploratory German at middle school-level, and currently teach upper-levels at the high school, including AP.
- Adapted to changing classes as German enrollment increased two-fold.
- Lead the World Languages Department, providing assistance and support as chair.
- Sponsor a large German Club at the high school.
- Lead a large-scale GAPP (German-American Partnership Program) exchange with the Friedrich-Ebert-Gymnasium in Hamburg, Germany.

Graduate Teaching Assistant in German

August 2013-May 2015

University of Missouri, Columbia, MO

- Planned lessons and taught various levels of German language classes.
- Gave assessments and issued grades for courses.

Fulbright English Teaching Assistant

August 2012-June 2013

Lucas-Cranach-Gymnasium, Wittenberg, Germany

- Planned lessons and teach American history, culture, and English in 5th-12th grade classes.
- Gave instruction in both English and German.
- Established lasting contacts in Wittenberg for use in either a History or German class.
- Founded an English Club at the school to promote further linguistic enrichment for the students.

References available upon request.